Artist Bio:

Anne Cowman studied art and education at Tufts, becoming an elementary/middle school art teacher. She continued her studies in California at The Art Studio in Mill Valley and the San Francisco Art Institute. Initially producing silkscreen designs for the juvenile market, she was nationally represented and distributed by Balangier Designs and Green Frog Art. Her designs won the Parent's Choice Award and were featured in the book The Perfect Home by Joseph Carroll, and were shown on TV's Extreme Makeover Edition. Anne traded in her silkscreen for painted canvas 15+ years ago, and in that time her work has evolved toward the loosely structured landscapes she currently explores. As a contemporary colorist, she strives to capture the play of light on the horizon, using only bold strokes of a palette knife and layers of vivid color.
